PANJABA & GULABA

- The Mughal were desperately searching in search for Guru Ji.
- It was 9th Poh 1761Bk. when Guru Ji along with Pyare Bhai Daya Singh, Pyare Bhai Dharam Singh and Bhai Maan Singh met Guru Ji in Machiwara and proceeded to an orchard. The caretaker of the orchard recognised Guru Ji and ran to the landlord who were two brothers Gulaba & Punjaba, Masands of the Guru's house.
- Gulaba & Punjaba came running to Guru Ji but they could not offer Guru Ji to come into their house in broad daylight as they would be the first to be suspected as all knew that they were Sikh preachers.
- They surrounded the orchard to protect Guru Ji the whole day and invited Guru Ji to their newly build house at night. Guru Ji spent a night in there.
- The next day on the 10th Poh 1761Bk (1704CE), the news of Mughal forces in search for Guru Ji reached Panjaba & Gulaba

GURU JI'S BENEVOLENCE

- The news was sent that whoever is found to give sanctuary to Guru Ji will have theirs and their family arrested and tortured to death.
- The news frightened everyone in the family of both brothers.
- After deliberate discussions, both the brothers decided to save their lives rather than serving Guru Ji during the most challenging time. They compromised their faith but did not have the courage to say it directly so they went to Guru Ji with a plate of gifts and 5 gold coins delivering a message that Guru Ji is no longer welcomed to stay.
- Guru Ji remained unmoved but the accompanying Sikhs went into rage.
- The 3 Sikhs asked Guru Ji, 'These are the Sikhs for whom You have sacrificed everything and they themselves are not willing to offer lodging at their house? Guru Ji replied;

ਇਨ ਗਰੀਬਨ ਹਮ ਦਯੈ ਪਤਿਸਾਗੀ । ਏ ਯਾਦ ਰਖੈਂ ਹਮਰੀ ਗੁਰਿਆਈ ।

I shall confer sovereignty on these poor and needy Gursikhs, So that they may remember my patronage and benediction.

- Such was the love and benevolence of Sri Guru Gobind Singh Ji.
- Guru Ji then left their house and continued his journey.
